“FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE”

The New Outerlimits 39 Quatro is Launched in Miami

Miami FL – February 10, 2004 – The anticipated launching of Outerlimits new 39 Quatro can be viewed at the Miami International Boat Show, booth 3330 at the convention center. This extraordinary boat, constructed with post-cured epoxy lamination, will exceed speeds of 100 MPH with Bravo XR drives and stock Merc power.

The 39 Quatro, both advanced and high tech features a standard staggered engine configuration. With the LOA of 39’ 11’ and a beam of 9’ 2”, there is plenty of room in this luxury craft. The cockpit contains side-by-side stand-up bolsters, a back seat, cushioned hatch, side entrance cabin and a standard windscreen. The feel of luxury abounds with a cabin that sports all the amenities that Outerlimits is known for, including a lounge area and enclosed stand-up head. Like all of Outerlimits boats, it’s built tough. - Capable to take on the rough seas in total confidence. The Quatro standard construction is post-cured epoxy lamination, which makes it strong while maintaining a light weight of 8200 pounds.

Like all Outerlimits boats, the 39 Quatro is the perfect blend of style, quality and design. The attention to detail is evident with the flawless fit and finish throughout the entire boat. And of course, the outrageous graphics that Outerlimits is known for immediately catches the eye. Precision handling, extreme performance and absolute beauty sums it all up.
